

RASHESH MANHAR BHANSALI

Born in 1968, Rashesh Bhansali, a B. Com graduate from H. R. College, Mumbai, started running his own jewellery manufacturing company, GOLDIAM INTERNATIONAL LTD, at the young age of 19. Since then, he has grown year on year, both on the professional and personal front. GOLDIAM GROUP is one of the top 5 jewellery export houses in Mumbai. As Executive Chairman and with foresight, hard work, a creative product line & an innovative business strategy, he has led Goldiam to become a sought-after supplier of a wide range of fine diamond jewellery. Goldiam is listed on the national stock exchange since 1995. He is also an active member of SEEPZ Gems and Jewellery Association, pivotal in formulating and representing jewellery export regulations. Recently, he has been instrumental in embracing lab-grown diamond technologies, while creating awareness & education of the same, in his industry. His other ventures include development of a 32 acre township in Pune. Last but not the least, he is a large investor in the Indian Financial Sector.

He loves travelling, meeting new people, listening to old Bollywood songs & watching movies. He is not only a big cricket fan & foodie, but also, a watch & car aficionado. He is very curious which helps him to stay in tune with all trends, be it tech or social media. He has a very intuitive, empathetic and charitable personality which has led him to participate regularly in various charitable ventures.